Our paper is studying problems with traffic in our town. Every day when we travel to work or school, we experience too much traffic and noise. We sit in traffic jams getting stressed or we can't hear people speak because of car horns and traffic noise. One problem is that there are too many cars and lorries in the town centre. The streets are too crowded, and the air is too dirty because of all the traffic. Mr. Martin, a shopkeeper, said, 'There is too much noise. I can't hear myself think!' Mr. Wood, a policeman, said, 'There are also too many parked vehicles. It's difficult to walk along the streets.' He added, 'And there are also too many accidents.' But the biggest problem is that there is too much air pollution –some pollutants are at dangerously high levels.

Tokyo is one of the largest cities in the world. It is a city of great contrasts. Busy motorways and crowded underground trains carry people to and from huge office blocks and factories every day. The streets are noisy and full of people. But just around the corner, you can find peaceful squares and quiet places where life seems unhurried, and unchanged for centuries. Tokyo really is a combination of the old and the new, the traditional and the modern. Harajuku, for example, is an area famous for teenage culture – the streets are full of fashion shops and fast food restaurants, and many of Tokyo's most fashionable young people come here to shop. Asakusa, on the other hand, is a district that is still traditional in many ways. One of the most beautiful temples, Sensoji, can be found here. It was built in the 7th century, and is Japan's oldest and most famous temple.
