B- Read the following text then do the tasks below:

The first time Sami ever flew in a plane was when he was about thirteen. His parents were taking him to visit his uncle in Kuwait. It was only a short flight, about two hours. Once on the plane, before they left the ground, he almost became bored. He thought that perhaps flying wasn't such an exciting event. Then they took off. He was sitting by the window where he enjoyed the view of the city from the sky. He loved every minute of that journey – and he still loves flying. Even though he has flown many times now, he still finds it as exciting and thrilling as he did then.
